

Members of the Profesh.

Four young women, all with blonde hair, and all suggesting an aroma of grease paint, stepped up to the box office of Fisher's theater when Freeman's Fun-makers were playing "A Railroad Ticket," and asked the ticket seller if the courtesies of the house were extended to the "profesh." The affable young man in the window replied in the affirmative and asked for credentials. None of the quartet had any cards, and it began to look as though the coveted favor would be denied them. After a hurried consultation one of the girls returned to the window with a piece of paste-board on which was engraved the name of a well-known youth of sporting proclivities. "I hate to show you this," she said, "but it's the only thing I can do. You can see what is written on the other side that I am a member of the profession." The ticket seller accepted the card and read: "Dearest L.: I thought best not to send any flowers tonight. Will tell you why when I see you to-night. Meet me 11:30 p. m. Lovingly, Will W." No further doubt existed in the mind of the young man in the window. He stamped the card, wrote "O. K.—4" on it, and handed it back with four seat coupons. But the best part of it lies in the unblushing assertion that the girl fished the card out of her stocking.—The Astorian.

The Good Qualities

Possessed by Hood's Sarsaparilla are almost beyond mention. Best of all, it purifies the blood, thus strengthening the nerves. It regulates the digestive organs, invigorates the kidneys and liver, tones and builds up the entire system. It cures dyspepsia, scrofula, catarrh and rheumatism. Remember, Hood's Cures. Hood's Pills act easily, yet promptly and effectively on the liver and bowels. 25 c.
